HENRY'S CUE WORK INTERESTS MANY

The exhibition games of pocket billiards played at the Superior Pocket Billiards and Carom Academy yesterdny afternoon and last night between C. W. Henry, champion fancy and trick shot of both pocket billiards and carom of the world, and J. S. Hawkins, the local wizard of the cue, were witnessed by over 200 billiard admirers. The games were good all the way through, the players keeping about even. The high run of the day was made by Mr. Hawkins, a 38-bail run, and Mr. Henry made a run of 32. The exhibition will be a 1,000-point game, the once who makes the 1,000 first will be the winner. Two hundred points will be made each day, 100 in the first game, which starts at 2,23 o'clock, and the other at 7,20 o'clock. After one of the players make 100 points Mr. Henry will give an exhibition at fancy and trick shots on both the pocket billiard and carom tables. The trick shots are not only amusing, but are also very difficult. The fancy shots are mainly five and six-ball combinations, from all corners of the table, and four and five-cushion bank shots are just as easy to the champion as straight shots. The fancy shots on the carom table are chiefly close draw and follow, masse, rall shots and all kinds of hard and crazy-looking punches. The time shot is his masterplece.

Mr. Henry is a traveling partner of Jerome R. Keogh, the five-time champion pocket idilitard player of the world, and they are now making a tour of the United States, but on account of serious Iliness in Mr. Keogh's family he was unable to visit Richmond.

Mr. Henry will be seen at the Superior the afternoon and night, and on Friday night will be at the Newport Pocket Rilliard and Carom Parlors, where he will give an exhibition at both "pool" and "billiards." Every one is invited to attend the exhibitions. He guarantees to run 100 points on the billard table every afternoon and evening.
